UNITED STATES MINT

2009 Fall Gift Catalog

COLLECTORS:

The United States Mint is pleased to present its 2009 Fall Gift Catalog. This year has been especially significant, as the beautiful 2009 Ultra High Relief Double Eagle Gold Coin was released earlier this year. To highlight this coin and its history, the United States Mint has included a few images and excerpts from the product's companion book on the pages of this catalog.

Also featured in this year's Fall Gift Catalog are products from the 2009 District of Columbia and U.S. Territories Quarters Program; Presidential $1 Coin Program; First Spouse Gold Coin Program; Native American $1 Coin Program; and 2009 Lincoln Bicentennial One Cent Program, commemorating the bicentennial of Abraham Lincoln's birth. You will also find our annual sets and bronze medals, and the 2009 Louis Braille Bicentennial Silver Dollar.

We hope that you enjoy all of these great products!

Sincerely,

Edmund C. Moy

2009 ULTRA HIGH RELIEF DOUBLE EAGLE GOLD COIN

The 2009 Ultra High Relief Double Eagle Gold Coin is an exquisite synthesis of art and pure 24-karat gold (.9999 fine). The artist's original design has been updated to include four additional stars to represent the current 50 states, the inscription IN GOD WE TRUST, which was not on the original 1907 version, and 2009 in Roman numerals.

Included with each order is an official United States Mint companion book that chronicles the history and development of this coin, describing the modern technologies and processes used to perfect it. A few excerpts and images from the book (not sold separately) are featured throughout this catalog.

For a more in-depth look at this product, the United States Mint has created a Web site (www.uhrgoldcoin.gov) that customers may visit to learn more, view a 360-degree version of the coin and watch a video on the history of the coin.
